David C. Reihner, Examining Attorney

The mark consists of an Aztec like sun design consisting of two circles in its center, one inside the other, the inner one completely shaded. On each side of the circles there are two identical figures of irregular shape. The central portions of these shapes encircle the inner circles and the outer portions extend upwards, downwards and sideways. The upper and lower extensions of these shapes form four open rectangles. The central extensions form a semicircle open on the side facing the two inner circles. Inside of each of the open semicircles there is another small semicircle with a dot inside each of them. There are four dots, one on each of the four corners of the sun design.

For periodicals, magazines, books, pamphlets and encyclopedias containing geographic, historical and cultural information about Mexico; traveler and visitor guides about Mexico and its historical and archeological sites, museums, national parks, beaches, colonial cities, ecological reserves (U.S. Cls. 2, 5, 22, 23, 29, 37, 38 and 50).

TRADEMARK REGISTRATIONS ISSUED UNDER SECTION 1(d)

The following marks have registered on the Principal Register pursuant to the intent-to-use provisions of Section 1(d) of the Trademark Act of 1946, as amended.

SECTION 1.— INTERNATIONAL CLASSIFICATION

The short titles associated below with the international class numbers are terms designed merely for quick identification and are not an official part of the international classification. The full names of international classes are given in section 6.1 of the trademark rules of practice.

The designation “U.S. Cl.” appearing in this section refers to the U.S. class in effect prior to Sep. 1, 1973 rather than the international class which applies to applications filed on or after that date. For adoption of international classification see notice in the OFFICIAL GAZETTE of Jun. 26, 1973 (911 O.G. TM 210).

SECTION 2.— INTERNATIONAL CLASSIFICATION

The short titles associated below with the international class numbers are terms designed merely for quick identification and are not an official part of the international classification. The full names of international classes are given in section 6.1 of the trademark rules of practice.

The designation “U.S. Cl.” appearing in this section refers to the U.S. class in effect prior to Sep. 1, 1973 rather than the international class which applies to applications filed on or after that date. For adoption of international classification see notice in the OFFICIAL GAZETTE of Jun. 26, 1973 (911 O.G. TM 210).
